

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO INFORMATION FOR 2023 NFL DRAFT

PRESENTED BY BUD LIGHT

KANSAS CITY [April 21, 2023] – The upcoming 2023 NFL Draft presented by Bud Light will host hundreds of thousands of football fans over the course of three days. Here is some important information for attendees:

- Register for FREE ACCESS at NFL.com/DraftAccess and download NFL OnePass at NFL.com/OnePass for the most up to date information.
- Fans can check NFL OnePass or NFL.com/Draft/Event-Info for transportation information and recommendations on how to get down to the Event site.
- Main Fan Entry will be Main Entry 1 located at the intersection of Wyandotte St and Memorial Drive. on the South side of the National WWI Museum and Memorial.
- NFL Clear Bag Policy will be in effect.
- Access to the Event site is first-come, first-serve and fans are encouraged to take advantage of all three days of the event and come down on Friday, April 29 and Saturday April 30.
- Designated ADA parking is available in the Union Station garage. Prepurchase is required and parking passes must be picked up by Sunday, April 23.

A map of the Draft footprint can be found here and is approved for public distribution.

For more details related to 2023 NFL Draft presented by Bud Light Know Before You Go information and FAQs, visit: NFL.com/draft/event-info or download NFL OnePass at NFL.com/OnePass.

###