Kansas City a Finalist for the 2013 and 2014 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The NCAA has announced today that Kansas City has been selected as one of five finalists still in consideration to host the 2013 and/or 2014 NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships. Other cities are: Des Moines, Oklahoma City, Omaha and St. Louis. The NCAA plans on notifying the awarded city or cities in the next two weeks. Final designation will be pending approval by the Championships/Sports Management Cabinet at the June meeting.

Kansas City hosted the championships in 2003.

Greater Kansas City Sports Commission and Foundation: The privately funded non-profit organization benefits Kansas City through sports. Its efforts focus on attracting, creating and managing major sporting events for the Kansas City region. You may also visit: SportKC.org for additional information.
