Thanksgiving Day 5k & Family Stroll Returns on November 25

KANSAS CITY, MO (November 16, 2021) – The 32nd Annual Thanksgiving Day 5K Run & Family Stroll presented by T-Mobile, one of Kansas City’s favorite fall traditions, returns as an in-person event to the Aspiria Campus on Thursday, November 25. Last year’s race was held virtually due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

“Our 5k has become an important part of Thanksgiving Day for thousands of Kansas Citians,” says Josh Zabel, Director of Events for the Kansas City Sports Commission. “We’re excited to bring family and friends together once again for this fun, community-oriented celebration.”

Registration is currently open and costs $35 for individuals, or $33 per person for group registrations of four or more. Participants will receive a comfortable, long-sleeved shirt in a tri-blend fabric, touchscreen gloves courtesy of T-Mobile, doughnuts from Krispy Kreme, as well as hot chocolate and coffee provided by The Roasterie.

This race benefits the Kansas City Sports Commission & Foundation and WIN for KC and 100% of the proceeds generated will fund our mission of making a better Kansas City through sports by attracting major events such as the 2023 NFL Draft and the 2026 FIFA World Cup.
