KANSAS CITY SPORTS COMMISSION AND FOUNDATION HIRES NEW WIN FOR KC PROGRAM COORDINATOR

(Kansas City, Missouri)--- The Kansas City Sports Commission and Foundation announced that Ms. Kelli Botta has been hired as the Program Coordinator for the Women's Intersport Network for Kansas City. WIN for KC functions under the umbrella of the Sports Commission and was established to promote sports participation opportunities and recognition for girls and women in the greater Kansas City area.

Kelli comes to Kansas City from Charlotte, North Carolina where she completed an internship as NIKE Representative for the WNBA Charlotte Sting. Kelli graduated and earned her masters degree from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. As an undergrad, she worked as a manager for the Tennessee Lady Vols Basketball Team, and later interned at the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in Knoxville. "Kelli brings us a wealth of women's sports and event experience and knowledge, and we are excited to have her join our team" said Kevin Gray, President of the Kansas City Sports Commission and Foundation.

Kelli will assume her duties as WIN Program Coordinator and Media Relations on August 14th. She will be responsible for all aspects of the WIN clinics, will coordinate WIN membership and community activities, and will assist with WIN events such as the luncheon and Big 12 promotions. She is also the media relations contact for both the Sports Commission and WIN for KC.

For more information about membership and volunteer opportunities with the Women's Intersport Network for Kansas City, contact Patti Phillips at 816/474-4652 Ext. 227.
