REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

KANSAS CITY, MO (October 20, 2020) – The 31st Annual Thanksgiving Day 5K Run & Family Stroll Presented by T-Mobile will not be held in person this year. However, people are still encouraged to participate with their friends and family for a safe, socially-distanced 5K run or walk through their own neighborhoods. And registration is now open!

Individual registration is $35. Groups may also register as a Family/Team with a minimum of 4 participants at a cost of $32 per person. Each registrant will receive a comfortable long-sleeved tri-blend shirt and a cell phone armband courtesy of T-Mobile. Additionally, T-Mobile will provide a stainless steel water bottle to each member of the Family/Team that registers the largest number of participants!

The registration fee includes shipping and handling. Click here to learn more and register.

“Participating in the Thanksgiving Day 5K Run & Family Stroll is a tradition for so many Kansas City area families,” says Josh Zabel, Director of Events for the Kansas City Sports Commission. “We are disappointed that we won’t be gathering in person, but sincerely hope that we can help keep that tradition alive by offering a safe alternative.”

This race benefits the Kansas City Sports Commission & Foundation and WIN for KC and 100% of the proceeds generated will fund the mission of making a better Kansas City through sports by attracting major events such as the 2023 NFL Draft and the 2026 FIFA World Cup.
